

Hary Wahyu is a pharmacist and has been working with Indonesian Drug Regulatory Authority, Badan POM since 1989.

Hary was instrumental in developing quality system for Clinical Trial Authorization and Good Clinical Practice in Badan POM for Drug, Traditional Medicine and Health Supplements. Hary was also involved in development of a manual checklist for GCP Inspection training course. Together with South Africa GLO learning centre, he facilitated GCP Inspection courses in Zimbabwe and Philippines. He was also assigned to assist China and Vietnam FDAs in good clinical practices inspections.

Hary is an active member in the Ministry of Health Ethics Committee and Indonesia National Ethics Committee.