

Togi Junice Hutadjulu is a staff of Indonesian Drug Regulatory Authority - Badan POM. She is a Pharmacist and received her master degree in Health Administration in Saint Louis University – USA in 1998. Previously, Togi has led several directorates including Production Control and GMP Inspectorate. She also served as Coordinator of MR of QMS 9001: 2008 between 2012 and 2016. Currently she is leading the Drug Registration Directorate and supervises the clinical trial unit.

Togi is a frequent speaker on quality management system both in national and international events.

As John Ruskin says “Quality is never an accident” believes Togi, “It is always the result of intelligent effort”.